Chapter 1 by magdalene

chapter 1:

if you read the first book this will be exciting, a long time back i went to a haunted hotel and stayed there for about a month or less i can't remember it was a long time ago but we will start with a new character, another visitor of laurel oaks.

her name is kaitlyn, it was her and her father, now first let start on the real story...

chapter 2: the visit

it was that moment that i had realized i was living in my own nightmare!

i hate nightmares!! but i had no choice my father forced me to, we went into our rooms and i changed my clothes because the clothes i had on we're soaking wet from the storm. after the storm stopped we unloaded the car and for some reason i couldn't get my foot off the front step of the porch, its like something was holding me back.

i guess i was afraid, i explored a little bit until i saw something it was an old broken down shack, i had no idea why it was there.

I went into it and there was a fire, i was scared, how is this possible?
